

Conservative councillor resigns Town Council seat

After less than 18 months in office one of the Conservative councillors has resigned. The Liberal Democrats have called an election here in Meadowbank ward which will take place on 2nd October 2008. Our candidate Jon Williams was a member of the Town Council from the beginning in 1992 until he stood down in 2007. Now, after seeing how the new Conservative administration have dealt with issues such as funding for young people, the Bowls club fiasco and failing to respond to major traffic plans, like the Aztec roundabout. Jon has decided to stand. Jon said "When I left the council in 2007 I felt that I had achieved what I had set out to do. Unfortunately, the Conservatives are now messing it all up. When the Liberal Democrats were in charge we ran the town for the residents, now residents can't even afford to rent the community buildings provided for them because the rents are too high. On many occasions the building are empty and losing valuable revenue. The council must provide facilities that local people can afford to use."

Jon's Pledge to you

If I am elected as your town Councillor I will:

1. Help resolve the bowls club fiasco
2. promote more youth work in the town
3. Demand that there is a review of the cost of hiring our community buildings
4. Campaign for proper consultation on the planned redevelopment at the Jubilee Green
5. Campaign for more opportunities for residents to engage with the Town council

Jon Williams a proud record of action.....

LIB DEMS CELEBRATE POLL SUCCESS

At the most recent by-election in the new Filton and Bradley Stoke Constituency, the Lib Dems gained 75% of the vote, with Labour only managing to trail in with 25%.

The Tories were invisible throughout the whole campaign, leaving the field clear for a Lib Dem win over Labour.
